

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BILL LONGBRAKE (TERM ENDING 2026)

BIO

Bill has extensive experience in finance and investments, macroeconomics and monetary policy, risk management, housing, and public policy. He has served in business, academic and government organizations. Bill began his career in Washington, D.C. in various government positions from 1970 – 1982. In 1995 and 1996, he served as CFO and deputy to the chairman for finance at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). He was also previously CFO of Washington Mutual, helping the company become the sixth largest depository institution in the U.S. Bill holds a PhD in Finance from the University of Maryland.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am passionate about BECU's member-focused mission and want to do all that I can to preserve BECU's culture and values – "Members First," "Do the Right Thing," "Know Your Stuff," "Own It," and "Be Real." BECU's success in serving its members depends on these values and in preserving the "secret sauce" that epitomizes BECU's culture. As a board member, I will be able to share my knowledge and experience in finance, risk, public affairs and community engagement in support of BECU's mission to serve members and enhance their well-being.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

JOHN MCMURRAY (TERM ENDING 2028)

BIO

John is a seasoned financial services executive with 30 years of executive experience in both risk-taking and risk management roles. His career spans leadership positions in trading, portfolio & balance sheet management with roles such as chief risk officer, chief audit executive and head of capital markets. He recently retired from Russell Investments, where he served as the longtime Chief Risk Officer and Chief Audit Executive. In addition to his executive experience, John has contributed his expertise as a board director for multiple organizations. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst, Certified Public Accountant, and Qualified Risk Director®. John earned degrees from MIT, the University of Texas at San Antonio, and Trinity University, and he has shared his knowledge by teaching Finance and Applied Mathematics at the University of Washington.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I would be honored to continue serving on BECU's Board of Directors and Audit Committee and believe my background would allow me to continue providing meaningful and relevant contributions. As a longtime supporter of credit unions, my wife and I are also longtime and enthusiastic members of BECU. Having worked in the financial service industry virtually all of my career, I know and appreciate that BECU is truly unique and special. I am eager to assist the BECU community as the institution continues to forge ahead towards a bigger and even brighter future.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PATRICK SMITH (TERM ENDING 2028)

BIO

Patrick Smith is Head of Consumer & Business Banking at Santander Bank, N.A.. He is responsible for driving the U.S. strategy for Santander's network of more than 400 branches and 1,200 ATMs, small business banking, corporate & social responsibility, digital, retail operations, and investments. Prior to joining Santander in 2020, Patrick served as Executive Vice President and Head of Commercial Digital at KeyBank, as well as a member of the company's executive council. Over his nearly 30-year career in financial services, Patrick has held a variety of leadership positions at Bank of America, Wells Fargo and Capital One. Previously, he also worked in Accenture's strategy practice servicing clients globally. Patrick is the Executive Sponsor of BOLD, Santander US' Business Resource Group dedicated to leveraging the diversity of thought and experiences of colleagues to support the growth and mobility of Black employees. Currently, he serves on the Boards of BDC Captial and Boeing Employee Credit Union, and on Boston Medical Center's Board of Trustees. Patrick received an M.B.A. from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business, a Master of Science in Information Technology Management from the University of Virginia, and a Bachelor of Science in Finance from Tuskegee University.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

We live in an age of disruption, where the established and conventional are yielding to the demands of a more expansive vision of what might be. The winners in this environment will be the institutions that are grounded in a noble mission. BECU is precisely that type of company and I look forward to advancing their mission of improving the financial well-being of their members and communities.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SANDRA THOMPSON (TERM ENDING 2028)

BIO

Sandra is the former Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency and has pursued every effort to ensure our nation's housing and lending institutions work for all communities. She also served as FDIC's Director of Supervision during the Great Financial Crisis, and Chair of Finance at her church. Sandra has a bachelor's degree in Finance from Howard University.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

It would be a privilege to join BECU's Board of Directors. As one of the largest credit unions in the nation, I want to support this member-driven institution. My goal is to communicate, cooperate and collaborate with the leadership team and the other board members to make significant contributions to BECU. The future of BECU is bright, and I would be delighted to be a part of it as a Director.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

BILL LONGBRAKE (TERM ENDING 2026)

BIO

Bill has extensive experience in finance and investments, macroeconomics and monetary policy, risk management, housing, and public policy. He has served in business, academic and government organizations. Bill began his career in Washington, D.C. in various government positions from 1970 – 1982. In 1995 and 1996, he served as CFO and deputy to the chairman for finance at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). He was also previously CFO of Washington Mutual, helping the company become the sixth largest depository institution in the U.S. Bill holds a PhD in Finance from the University of Maryland.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am passionate about BECU's member-focused mission and want to do all that I can to preserve BECU's culture and values – "Members First," "Do the Right Thing," "Know Your Stuff," "Own It," and "Be Real." BECU's success in serving its members depends on these values and in preserving the "secret sauce" that epitomizes BECU's culture. As a board member, I will be able to share my knowledge and experience in finance, risk, public affairs and community engagement in support of BECU's mission to serve members and enhance their well-being.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

JOHN MCMURRAY (TERM ENDING 2028)

BIO

John is a seasoned financial services executive with 30 years of executive experience in both risk-taking and risk management roles. His career spans leadership positions in trading, portfolio & balance sheet management with roles such as chief risk officer, chief audit executive and head of capital markets. He recently retired from Russell Investments, where he served as the longtime Chief Risk Officer and Chief Audit Executive. In addition to his executive experience, John has contributed his expertise as a board director for multiple organizations. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst, Certified Public Accountant, and Qualified Risk Director®. John earned degrees from MIT, the University of Texas at San Antonio, and Trinity University, and he has shared his knowledge by teaching Finance and Applied Mathematics at the University of Washington.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I would be honored to continue serving on BECU's Board of Directors and Audit Committee and believe my background would allow me to continue providing meaningful and relevant contributions. As a longtime supporter of credit unions, my wife and I are also longtime and enthusiastic members of BECU. Having worked in the financial service industry virtually all of my career, I know and appreciate that BECU is truly unique and special. I am eager to assist the BECU community as the institution continues to forge ahead towards a bigger and even brighter future.